PARENT/GUARDIAN + STUDENT AGREEMENT:

Our music program has limited spaces and often fills up quickly (waitlists are not uncommon), so we encourage families to apply only if they're ready to make the commitment. A sample calendar is available at GMSmusic.org to help you get a sense of our schedule. By submitting this application, you're committing to a full school year in the program, with required 30 minutes of daily practice at home, participation in up to four evening concert performances, and considering local instrument rental options to support your child's musical journey. Sign below if you agree:

Granada Band and Orchestra Summer Music Camp

Dates: Monday, June 9 - Friday, June 13, 2025

Location: Granada Middle School

Spend a week immersed in music, fun, and friendships! This camp is designed for students enrolled in the Granada Music Program for the 2025-2026 school year.

- Orchestra Class (violin, viola, cello, bass): 9:00 AM - 11:00 AM
- Band Class (winds and percussion): 11:30 AM - 1:30 PM

Why attend?

- Experience hands-on learning with your future classmates and teachers.
- Explore different instruments and see what fits your style.
- Build confidence and skills in a supportive and exciting environment.

Details:

- Camp is optional but highly recommended for all new music students.
- A $50 participation fee includes your camp t-shirt. Cash only, due on the first day of camp.
- Enrollment in the camp is open only to students who submit their music program application by the deadline.
- Participation in the camp does not guarantee placement in the program or on a specific instrument, but it's an amazing way to get started!
- Bring your own instrument by renting, or some school instruments are available (based on limited availability)

Camp Sign-ups are included in the music program application. Spots fill up quickly, so don't miss out!
